Navigating the Educational Path

FROM IDEA TO IMPACT

The ribbon is cut, and the pages are turning! Thank you to everyone who joined us for the grand inauguration of our Book Nook Vending Machine!

Students can earn Book Nook coins and “buy” a book of their choosing as a reward for showing exceptional report cards and for all future kids programming. This exciting new system encourages positive choices while fostering a love of reading—what a win-win!

Small experiments create big evidence. The next step does not need to be perfect - it needs to be possible.

DBC Board & Atmos Energy

Dallas Bethlehem Center extends a special thank-you to Atmos Energy for sponsoring our book nook vending machine and helping make this exciting opportunity possible for the children and families we serve.

We would especially like to recognize Kimberly Smith, Community Relations at Atmos Energy, for her support and commitment in helping bring this partnership to DBC.

We also want to express our sincere appreciation to Cynthia Miller, Account Manager for Superior Text, for coordinating the process and helping make the project a reality. A special thank-you goes to Diane Goldsmith and Paul Patti of Superior Text for joining us at the ribbon-cutting ceremony and for representing Superior Text as they helped us celebrate with our community.

The Rotary Club Boosts Community Support with $10,000 Donation to DBC

Dallas Bethlehem Center would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to the Rotary Club and its Board for the generous grant awarded to DBC. We are especially grateful that, after initially approving a $5,000 grant, the Board made the decision to increase the award to $10,000. This additional support will make a meaningful difference in the work we do. We would also like to give a special thanks to Tracy Gomes for leading this initiative and for helping make this opportunity possible.

The meeting was held at the North Texas Food Bank, with guest speaker and panel Trisha Cunningham, President and CEO and Natalie Markham, Manager of Strategic Initiatives of North Texas Food Bank.

We extend our sincere gratitude to Rotary Club President Mark Kashar for presenting the check and for his continued dedication to supporting DBC's mission.

Heavy Lifting, Huge Hearts!

A massive shout-out to the incredible crew who tirelessly load and unload the heavy food pallets week in and week out! Under the steadfast leadership of Marlon Cullors, this dedicated team handles the physical backbone of our operations. They ensure that fresh groceries from Crossroads and our other vital partnering organizations make it safely from the trucks to our shelves.

Thank you for being part of a community that turns possibility into progress. Let's keep building together.
